

June 1, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Phillips Plastics Founder Inducted into Wisconsin Business Hall of Fame

Phillips, Wisconsin – Robert Cervenka, Founder, Chairman of the Board, and Chief Executive Officer of Phillips Plastics Corporation® was recently inducted into the Wisconsin Business Hall of Fame. Established in 1990 by the Junior Achievement of Wisconsin, this prestigious award honors legendary business leaders whose innovations, effective management, and civic involvement make a difference in companies and communities throughout the state. In addition to their accomplishments, the Wisconsin Business Hall of Fame laureates are also recognized for the high standards they have set as role models for Wisconsin's youth.

Bob Cervenka was welcomed into the Wisconsin Business Hall of Fame this year along with Don Davis, former Chairman and Chief Executive of Milwaukee-based Rockwell Automation Inc., and the late Leonard Gentine, Founder of Plymouth-based Sargento Foods Inc.

About Phillips Plastics

Phillips Plastics Corporation is a forty-three year-old, high-tech custom injection molder of plastic, metal, ceramic, and silicone with annual sales of over $260 million. The Company employs 1,600 people in 15 locations throughout the United States, occupying over 620,000 square feet, including design centers in Wisconsin and California, and provides complete services from concept design, rapid prototyping, and tooling through production, assembly, packaging, and distribution to virtually every market.

www.phillipsplastics.com

For more information, contact:
Leslie Lagerstrom, Vice President of Marketing
Phillips Plastics Corporation
N4660 1165th Street
P.O. Box 185
Prescott, WI 54021-0185
P 715.262.8000
F 715.262.8190